

Data Management and the GDPR

The role of REScoops in Data Management and how to make it a competitive advantage.

Agenda

14:00 – 14:10 : Introduction and short recap on the RGPD

14:10 – 14:35 : Presentation of the local contexts and problematics

14:35 – 15:05 : Theme 1 – How to explain Data Privacy to the members?

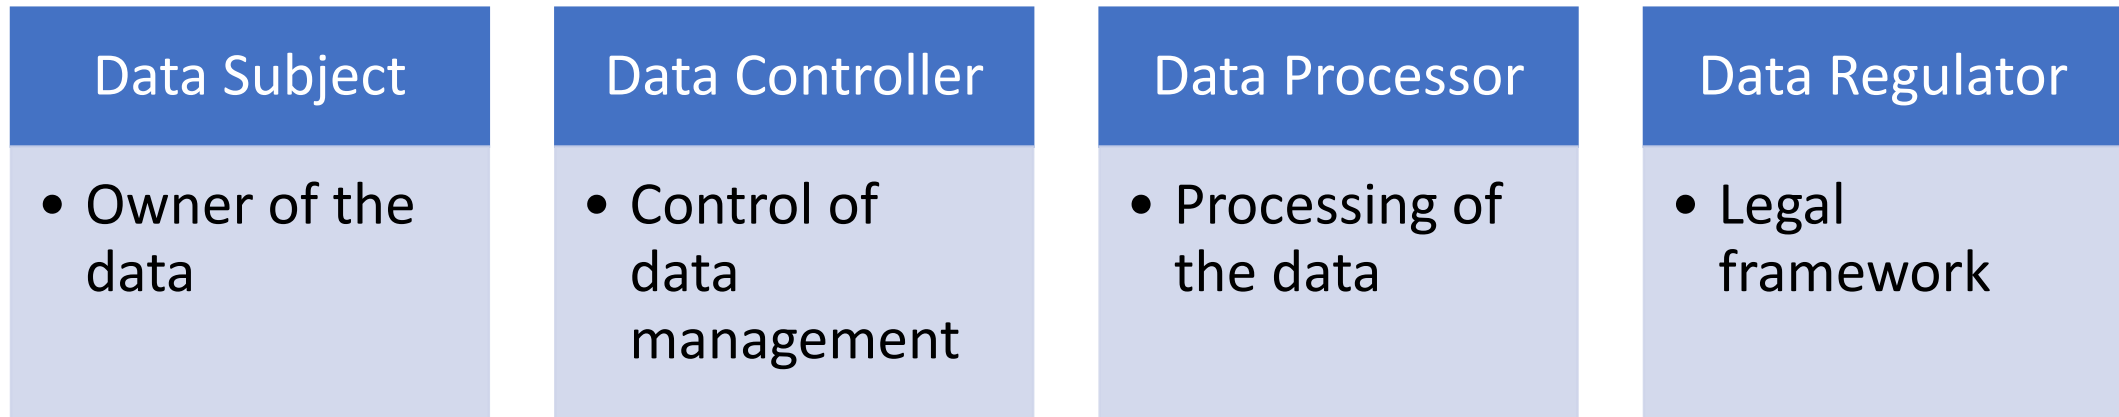

15:05 – 15:35 : Theme 2 – Smart Meters : opportunities and threats

15:35 – 16:00 : Theme 3 – Recommendations to policy makers

Historic of the Personal Data Legislation

Main changes in the 2016 Framework

Data Protection by Design

Consent Attached to Specific Processing

Right to access / to receive / to send Personal Data

Reinforcement of the “Right to be Forgotten”

Proposal : The Gold Standard

Principle	Technics
Evolution Anonymization	Data Minimization Pseudoanonymization Regular context information check Segregation of the data bases
Frame by Frame consent	“Take what is needed” Ask regularly for consent Compartment approach
Training and Information	Regular information to consumers Training of risk management Proactive role of the data controller Direct communication to the subjects

Theme 1 : How to explain Data Privacy to the members?

- YELLOW : User Stories
- RED : Best Practices
- GREEN / BLUE : Questions

Theme 2 – Smart Meters : opportunities and threats. How to deal with it ?

- YELLOW : User Stories
- BLUE : Best Practices
- GREEN / BLUE : Questions

Theme 3 – Recommendations to policy makers.

- YELLOW : Implementation of Data Management
- BLUE : Stress Points
- GREEN / BLUE : Questions to investigate